Utah Wing Encampment

Welcome

Major Mike Murray
Commander

Congratulations! You have just completed one of the many challenges you will face in the CAP Cadet Program. Many more opportunities are now available to you, and I urge you to seek them out and continue to grow as a cadet.

Remember what you have learned here, the friends you have made, and above all else – enjoy the time you have in the Cadet Program.

I would like to congratulate each and every one of you on a job well done. It was only seven days ago when you were “kindly and gently” greeted by the staff during in processing. I remember the looks of 80 individual faces, reflecting thoughts such as “what did I get myself into?” and “Why won’t they leave me alone?” Now I see four flights of cadets that developed self-discipline and teamwork. I want to challenge each of you to uphold the standards you learned throughout your CAP careers. Teach what you have learned to the cadets in your squadrons. “Semper Vigilance”.

Major Ray Atanacio
Commandant of Cadets

C/Major Sydney Chamberlin
Cadet Commander

Dear Cadets,

When you arrived a week ago, you came as individuals. I have watched you through the many challenges you faced, and it has been amazing to see you develop into a team. At the same time you changed from the unsure cadets you were upon arrival, to disciplined, confident members of the cadet program. I hope that this has been a great learning experience for you, and that you will take your new knowledge home with you. Congratulations on your graduation from Desert Hawk II

Activities

ARMY & AVIATION LEARNING CENTER of Cadets

Desert Hawk welcomes you!
Camp Williams

Memorizing your SOP at every opportunity is mandatory.

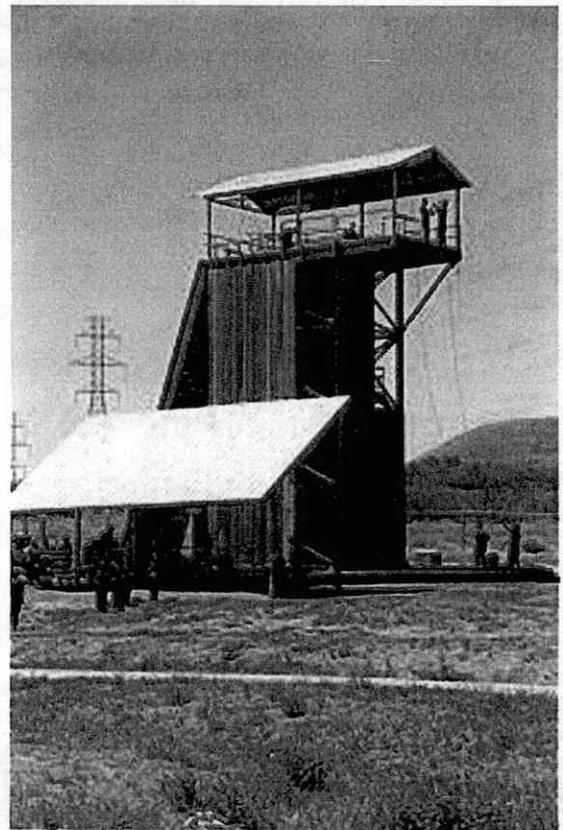

Female and male cadets are routinely inspected at a moments notice.

Rappel Tower

Milne and Layton on the wall!
Cadets enjoy this activity.

Freefall or wall?is the question asked as you reach the top step.

Activities

Classes include Rocketry, Communication, and much more.

Flight Squadron's are built on teamwork.

Mealtime is always a welcome break from the sun and your feet.

Air National Guard

Cadets check out the jump seats on a KC135.

Demonstration of a flight helmet

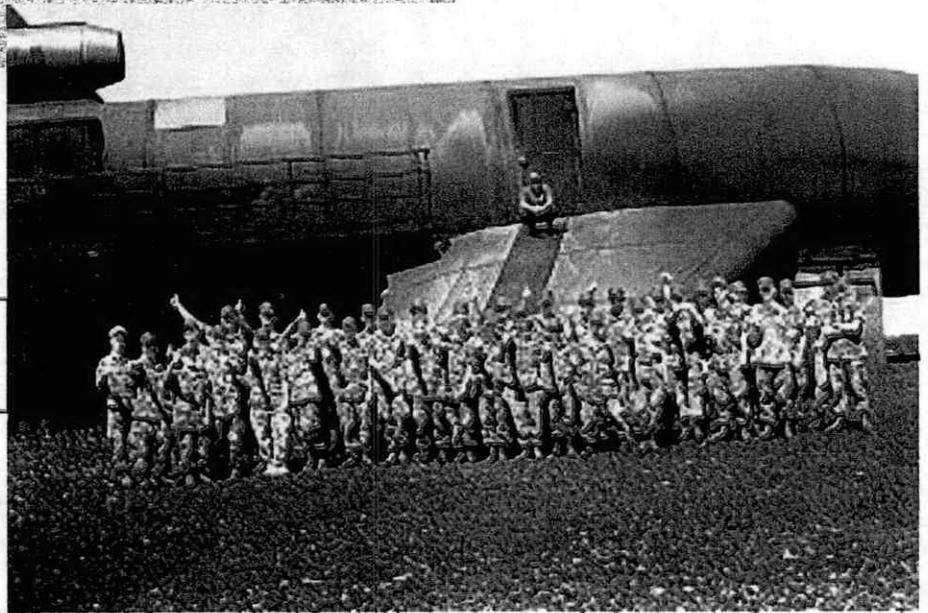

Cadets always like to check out the controls! A KC135 is no exception.

Activities

Cadets toured the Hill Air Force Base Museum – one of the finest anywhere!

The cadets pose in front of the burn test plane.

Fire demonstration by the airport fire department was hot!

Life

Do you want to declare anything?? Cadets at check-in have the opportunity to fess up about their contraband.

Marching becomes second nature after you do it enough!

A whole week without soda!?!? This may be the toughest part of encampment!

Yearbook Produced By Capt. Dave Chamberlin and SM Val Holbrook

Special thanks to Capt. Dave Jensen and 1 Lt. Sue Chamberlin in the production of the books. Also special thanks to those who pitched in during "the crisis".

We gratefully acknowledge thanks to Merit Medical Systems for materials and facilities in the production of the books.

Special thanks to Costco for donation of paper dishes and utensils for use at Desert Hawk II - this saved a lot of work and precious water.
